

ARRANGEMENTS FOR LABOR DAY COMPLETE

All preparations for the Labor Day celebration to be held on next Monday at the Michaux Grove have been completed, and a good time is assured all who attend. Several features for the occasion have been secured by the Trades and Labor Council, under whose auspices the celebration will be held, and nothing will be left undone to make the outing one of enjoyment and pleasure. Prominent speakers have been invited, a street parade will be given, labor shows at the Airdome and New Lyric Theatre have been provided for, Prof. Roddy of Waco will make a thrilling balloon ascension and parachute leap, the Labor Day Queen will be crowned by the governor, while three bands have been secured to furnish plenty of music for the occasion.

Three special trains will be run to accommodate the people of East Texas who wish to attend the celebration, which is annually looked forward to with much interest, besides indications point to an immense gathering from Anderson and adjoining counties in wagons and other modes of travel.

Three thousand programs have been printed for the occasion, and will be distributed Monday morning; this will furnish all visitors and citizens of the city the program of the day, so no one will miss any of the features connected with the outing.

The following reception committee has been appointed to greet the speakers from out of town who will be the guests of the Trades and Labor Council: S. A. Taylor, chairman; W. B. Riley, R. A. Garner, C. R. Angell, D. R. Tomkins, George R. Tucker, D. H. Guinn, Eppner Cohen, H. V. Hamilton, W. P. Sandlin, S. S. Crabtree, Jno. F. Nash, L. C. Ferguson, W. M. David, Joe Elam, Tony Lamb, W. M. Everett, Miss Gertrude Armstrong, Miss Lizzie Barnes, Miss Ruby Knight, Miss Nellie Wright, Miss Myrtle Wiley and Miss Addie Bell McDonald.

Calcate, Tony Lamb, D. H. Guinn, W. M. David and W. G. Floyd. This

Business Houses to Decorate.
Many merchants have assured the chairman of the celebration that they will decorate their places of business for the Labor Day celebration. Several places are being decorated today, while many will be fixed up Monday with flags and bunting.

Labor Day Sermons.
All of the pastors of the city will deliver Labor Day sermons at the respective churches tomorrow evening, and a very cordial invitation is extended to all of the laboring people and others to attend. Interesting song services will also be given; announcements in regard to the services can be found in the regular church columns.

To Special Policemen.
All members of local unions who have been selected to serve as special policemen for Labor Day are urged to be at the council chamber of the city hall Monday morning promptly at 9 o'clock, so they can be sworn in by Mayor Bowers. This is important, and no delay should be encountered.

Announces in Daily Herald.
This week the Hon. G. R. Fowler, candidate for state senator, authorized his announcement placed in the weekly edition of the Herald. Today his announcement appears in the daily edition. Capt. Rees Fowler, as he is better known to his friends and to the people of the county and district, is a man well qualified for the office; he is a good lawyer, an energetic young man, and has a good record as a consistent democrat. His friends are going to do all they possibly can to secure for him the nomination. It is not necessary for the Herald to go into a detailed introduction of the gentleman, for he is as well known, perhaps, as any man living in this section, and his friends are many.

Don't waste your money buying plasters when you can get a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment for twenty-five cents. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment is superior to any plaster for lame back, pains in the side and chest, and much cheaper. Sold by Bratton Drug Co.

Conductor Tom Fitts came down today from the Henderson and Overton branch, where he spends his time punching tickets and making love—to nature. He says he is going to stay over and see the big parade Monday, and enjoy placing his feet on paved streets once more.

BOTH BACK ON THEIR JOBS

Engineer Converse and Conductor Hewett Have Been Reinstated, After a Lay-Off.

Some several weeks ago Engineer Converse, one of the oldest in the passenger service of the I. & G. N., and Conductor Hewett, not quite so old, but one of the most popular, were laid off because of some infraction, or supposed infraction, of railroad orders, or something, the writer never knew just what. Now they are both back on their jobs once more, and they and their friends are happy.

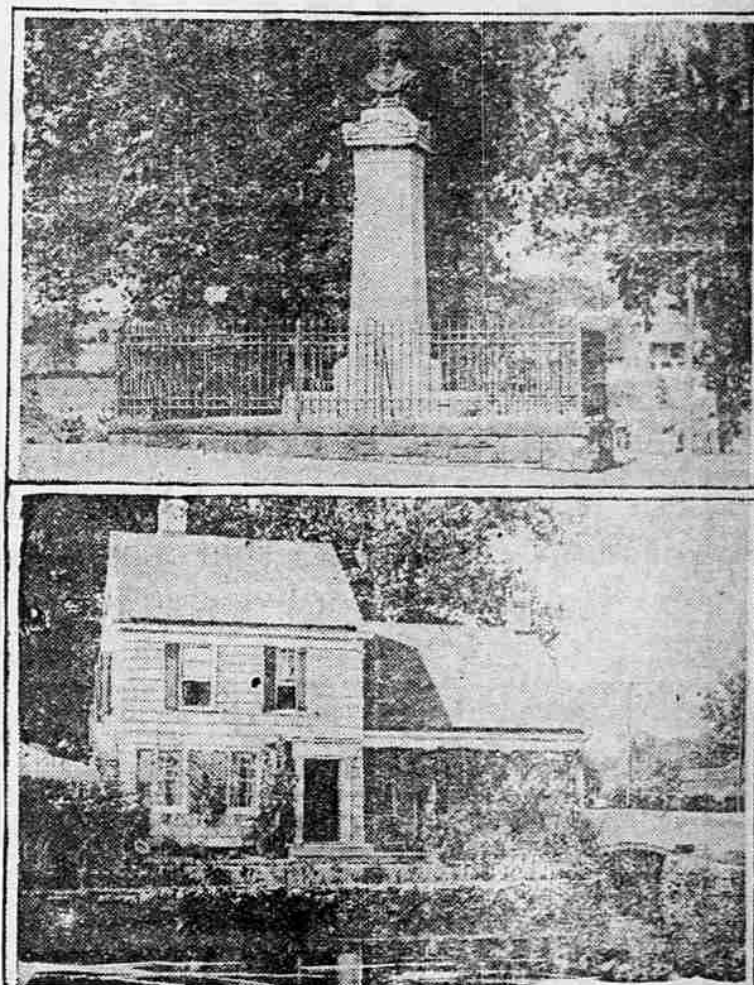

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING PAYS.

Next Year Many Companies Will Use This Medium Exclusively.

It's an oft repeated sentence, but one we are glad to repeat, "that newspaper advertising pays." The last source of information in this respect is from C. R. McAdams, Jr., advance agent for the Curtiss Comedy company, which opens a week's engagement at the Airdome commencing Monday night. Mr. McAdams says that at a meeting of theatrical managers in Chicago during May, nine-tenths of these voted to use the newspaper medium exclusively for advertising their attractions during 1911, and states that a full realization of the value of good newspapers has been reached by them; that the results to be obtained from ads. placed in newspapers are 100 per cent better than any other present medium extant.
